

ENAMORED BY ACUATICO A LAIYA LOVE AFFAIR

FLOATING BAR

Tourists are inevitably drawn into the mesmerizing waters and sun-splashed beaches of Laiya in Batangas, making it an ideal venue for destination weddings and a favorite among discriminating honeymooners. With an assortment of lifestyle properties that have sprouted up in the area, one new-player stands out as a premier, high-class deluxe resort.

ACUATICO Beach Resort has been making a name for itself. Since opening its doors to the public in 2008, this chic and luxurious resort has played host to a-many destination weddings, company retreats, family getaways and even TV commercials. Part of its allure is its iconic infinity-edge pool that seems to extend into the sparkling, blue waters of the adjacent sea.

Its over-all theme and décor is Balinese-inspired; think minimalist architecture that blends into the landscape and a neutral color palette accented by the cerulean hue of beach waters, the pool and dreamy sky.

The resort villas are carefully plotted out to give guests a spectacular view of their choice—the magnificent Mt. Daguldul or the sea.

Its accommodations run from Infinity Rooms, Poolside Infinity Rooms, the Alta Vista, Vista de Laiya, and Casa de Playa to Family Suites, Terrazas and the full loft, Estancia.

Guests may choose to laze the day by the infinity pool, the outdoor Jacuzzi, or the beach. For some action, they are free to ride the pedal boat, play basketball or beach volleyball, snorkel, kayak or hike up the trail of Mt. Daguldul.

Come mealtime, savor a fusion of Filipino and international cuisine at the Oceano Acuatico restaurant. Be it steamed, broiled, grilled or poached, food in Acuatico can be cooked according to the specific requirements and preferences of each guest.

Meanwhile, the Nautilus Bar, strategically located at the center of the pool, serves as a pre-lunch/dinner facility—perfect for sipping cocktails while delighting in Laiya's natural attractions.

For a more intimate set-up, guests can arrange for a romantic dinner for two under the dreamy, night sky and spectacular view of the stars. Thereafter, guests could retire to an indulging and health-invigorating massage and reflexology treatments provided by local spa therapists.

ACUATICO Beach Resort is a bona-fide member of the Association of Laiya Resorts Owners (ALRO). ACUATICO accepts reservations for corporate activities such as conferences, teambuilding activities, outings and private functions like wedding receptions, birthdays and anniversary celebrations.
