EL RIO Y MAR

A SECRET PALAWAN PARADISE

If it's seclusion you crave, look no further than the charming tropical resort of El Rio Y Mar. Hidden away in the quiet northeastern bay of Busuanga Island, all of its more than twenty-four accommodations dot the bay front and are surrounded by lush mangroves.

Accommodations

El Rio Y Mar has nine Casas made with modern interiors and furnished with one king-sized bed (with provision for two pullout beds); four Cedar Cabanas made of imported cedar wood and furnished with a king-sized bed or two twin beds (with provision for two pullout beds); and eleven Native Cabanas furnished with either a queen-sized bed (with provision for one pullout bed) for cabana 8 & 9 or a king-sized bed (with provision for two pullout beds) for cabanas 5-7 and 10-15.

All rooms are equipped with its own veranda, private bathroom with hot shower, refrigerator and mini-bar, and electric kettle for coffee and tea.

Facilities & Amenities

Sprawled across the 500-meter property of El Rio Y Mar are facilities and amenities perfect for a truly relaxing and unforgettable getaway. Guests may choose to laze around the swimming pool or by the fresco lounge; wallow their time away in the video and videoke room, the mini-library or game room; enjoy drinks and refreshments at Port Caltom's Reef Bar or take pleasure in the soothing services of the El Rio Island Spa.

The resort's in-house guest services officers can prepare programmed activities such as cultural shows, environmental shows, indoor sports tournaments such as table tennis, billiards and darts, group board games, team-building activities, parties and other fun activities both for kids and adults. Picnic lunches, sunset dinners, cocktails and cruises can also be arranged depending on prevailing sea and weather conditions.

For the more adventurous guests, El Rio Y Mar offers island tours—Island Escapades, Island Hopping, Bottom Fishing, Calaut Wildlife Safari Tours, and Coron Island Tours.

El Rio Y Mar also has a notable collection of fun water sports activities: yachting, Hobie cat sailing, windsurfing, kneeboarding, scuba diving, snorkeling, kayaking and diving.

Into the Deep

El Rio Y Mar is a top choice for travelers seeking to connect with nature, while enjoying the highest standards of comfort and luxury. The resort is a known photographer and diver's paradise due to its impressive proximity to Palawan's abundant and colorful marine life and stunning collection of WWII shipwrecks.

The nearby "House Reef" and Apo Reef Natural Park produces a stunning wealth of sea life. Giant clams, barracudas, stingrays, sea slugs, turtles and the marine mammal, dugong (sea cow) roam the deep and interesting waters of Palawan.

Meanwhile, the Kyokuzan Maru (wreck) off Dimalanta Island never fails to mesmerize guest divers with its intriguing past as a Japanese freighter during WWII.

Weddings

The intimate setting in El Rio Y Mar provides couples with a romantic venue for their dream weddings and an ideal honeymoon getaway. El Rio Y Mar has comprehensive wedding packages available upon request.
